

KINDERGARTEN NEWS

Week of December 10-14, 2018

This Week

Phonics: We will work on writing, recognizing, and identifying the letters Ww and Xx and their sounds. We will practice blending sounds and identifying the ending sound in words.

Math: We will learn how to compare sets and numerals to 20 (using more than, less than, or equal to.) We will also continue to work on counting to 50.

Reading: We will review print concepts by reading books about transportation.

Writing: We will continue to work on writing to support our opinion with a reason.

Social Studies: We will learn about transportation and how the changes in modes of transportation have affected families.

We will make gingerbread houses with our 4th grade Book Buddies on Friday December 14th. We will send these home with your child in a large plastic bag.

Sight Words

want, run, on

*if your child knows these words, please work on spelling them.

News from K-B

The last week of school we will have "themed" days for your child to dress out. It's just a way to have fun and spread some holiday cheer before we go on winter break. Please look for the schedule in next week's newsletter.

The end of the first quarter is almost here! Please help Kindergarten meet their goal by making sure your child is learning the letters and letter sounds. Some children have mastered all the letters and sounds! Some are so close. Review these and sight words daily at home.

Reminders

Library books, Baggie Books, and homework are due back each Friday! Please help your child keep up with their books and homework folder. Remember to read, read, and read and record your books on the reading log for the 100 Book Club.

Tips from Teachers

Math: Continue to practice counting to 50 and writing the numerals from 0-15 without any reversals. If students are ready, then can practice counting by 10s to 100.

ELA: Have your child practice identifying the characters and setting of a story. The characters are the people, places, and things. The setting is when and where the story happens. Also, have your child use their own words to retell a story with puppets we made in class.

Daily Skills: Please make sure that your child is getting adequate rest during this busy time of year. As winter break approaches, they are excited and tend to get have a hard time focusing and staying on task. Let's be proactive and encourage them through this exciting time of year.
